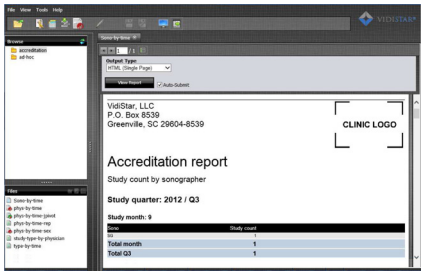
DATA MINING:

The VidiStar Data Mining software allows users to perform ad hoc queries and run accreditation reports of their VidiStar clinical report data in seconds! Whether it's for accreditation, business development, market research, compliance, or quality assurance, you can run reports with just a few mouse clicks!

Using VidiStar's patented technology, the VidiStar Data Mining software allows for easy to navigate data mining using a secure connection over the Internet.

Features include:

- Internet access for remote management
- Secure Login via https connection
- Ad hoc query and structured report query
- Export into Excel
- Multiple graph selections
- Point and click navigation
- Runs on most Internet browsers and operating systems
- Perform basic statistics and quantitative reports
- Schedule automated reports



a solutions integration company